Answer ONE question.

Vocabulary, spelling, grammar, punctuation and presentation are important and will be taken into account.

Write on ONE of the following topics. Credit will be given for good spelling, punctuation and organisation, as well as for controlled and imaginative use of vocabulary.

1. Describe where you would rather be.
2. Imagine you have been falsely accused of doing something. Write your thoughts.
3. Describe an emotion or feeling without mentioning its name – except in the title.
4. ‘Why do I need English lessons? I read, write and speak the language all the time.’ Write either in support of, or in opposition to, this view.

Total: 50 marks
